OBJECTIVE: The Power of Dad Group Mentoring Program is designed to provide participants with a step-by-step mentoring process that involves physical, mental, spiritual and emotional challenges. The program takes students on a journey and deals with their past, present and future. The program ultimately prepares and releases them through a rite of passage/graduation in which participants are honored before their peers and loved ones. Each participant finishes the program with a heart that has been healed, a clearer purpose and a game plan to accomplish that purpose.

CONTENT: The Power of Dad Group Mentoring Program is designed for participants who are deemed fatherless, have a poor relationship with their father or is currently a father. Each module of this course has been strategically chosen to deal with father-children relationships.

COURSE WORK: There are 3 phases to our program which come in 3 separate manuals with a total of 22 modules (lessons):

Phase 1 Focuses on the Boy/Girl

Phase 2 Focuses on the Man/Woman

Phase 3 Focuses on the Father/Mother

The program ends with a rite of passage ceremony in the form of a graduation. Over the course of the program participants can expect in class and out of class assignments, group interaction, public speaking, creative thinking and workbook assignments.

Graduation of students will be based on class participation and attendance. No new participants are allowed after the second class. Any student that misses 3 session (classes) forfeit their opportunity to be apart of this class and no refund shall be given for any part of the remainder of the classes that were agreed upon in the original contract.
